As Unitarian Universalist Ministers and Seminarians faithful to conscience and committed to building a more compassionate world, we call upon our colleagues and congregations to join us in striving for more environmentally responsible, humane and healthy diets. We’re on a path... and invite you to join us. We’ve learned that factory farms not only damage American communities and devastate ecosystems with their profligate pollution, but also subject billions of sentient creatures to tremendous suffering.

We’ve learned that moving toward plant based diets does more to slow global warming than replacing SUVs with compact hybrids. We’re beginning to understand the power of our own plates. Recognizing the moral claims of justice, our obligation to future generations, and the oneness of all life, we invite you to join us: vegetarians and vegans for whom conscious food choices have become some of our most important spiritual practices.

Clergy

Rev. Ann Marie Alderman
Rev. Wayne Arnason
Rev. Paul Boothby
Rev. Ken Brown
Rev. Vernon Chandler
Rev. Lee Devoe
Rev. Mary Margaret Earl
Rev. Hope Engeseth
Rev. Audette Fulbright Fulsom
Rev. Meredith Garmon
Rev. Clyde Grubbs
Rev. Marni Harmony
Rev. Kim Crawford Harvie
Rev. David Herndon
Rev. M. Lara Hoke
Rev. Beth Johnson
Rev. Jeff Jones
Rev. Lora Kim Joyner
Rev. Susan Karlson
Rev. Gary Kowalski
Rev. Doug Kraft
Rev. Dr. Nana Kratochvil
Rev. Ralph Merv
Rev. John Millsapugh
Rev. Sarah Millsapugh
Rev. Susan Mankier-Scalan
Rev. John C. Morgan
Rev. Bill Neely
Rev. Shawn Newton
Rev. Jane Page
Rev. Rebecca Quinamada-Senes
Rev. Ken Read-Brown
Rev. Kathleen Rolenz
Rev. Bob Schaibly
Rev. Charlotte Shivers
Rev. Larry W. Smith
Rev. Sue Spencer
Rev. Paul Sprecher
Rev. Charles J. Stephens
Rev. Jill Ann Tervilliger
Rev. Mike Thompson
Rev. Nate Walker
Rev. Bets Wienecke
Kelly Weisman Asprooth-Jackson
Rev. David Weissbard
Rev. Chip Wright

Seminarians

Christy Baker
Wendy Bartel
John Czachurski
Rebecca Johnson
Lynn Kelly
Michael Lechtonberger
Tara Little
Lee Marie Sanchez
Jodi Tharan
Aaron White
Judy Zimmerman